Forecast For Tayside, Central & Fife
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Monday 08 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cold, bright Monday, some snow showers, perhaps prolonged snow overnight.

Today:
Bright spells and scattered snow showers, these more frequent over Fife and Angus and sometimes heavy. Some sunshine in west, but showers reaching across to western parts in afternoon, with accumulations to low levels. Cold with rather brisk easterly winds. Maximum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Tonight:
A few clear spells, but with further snow showers, some heavy. Showers likely to become more prolonged overnight, especially across Fife and Perthshire, leading to accumulations even to low levels . Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Tuesday:
A cold and generally cloudy day with rather frequent and sometimes heavy snow showers, even over western parts, but some bright or perhaps sunny spells. Snow accumulating to low levels. Maximum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Cold with bright spells and scattered snow showers. Further accumulations expected with sharp frosts. Mostly light easterly winds. but strengthening southeasterly winds Friday with more prolonged snow in west later.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.